

Luc Démazure

Chairman of the Nord Est Crédit Agricole Regional Bank

Luc Démazure is a farmer in the Aisne (North East of France) and Chairman of the French Sugarbeet Technical Institute. He has served on numerous boards of directors since 1975. He has been the chairman of the Nord Est Regional Bank (Reims) since 2003, chairman of the Association of Regional Bank Chairmen at the Crédit Agricole National Federation (FNCA) since 2005 and chairman of Crédit Agricole Solidarity and Development (CASD), an association financed by the Regional Banks of Crédit Agricole and FNCA which supports the projects in the developing countries.

Luc Démazure is also the Chairman of the International de Crédit Agricole et Rural (ICAR) NGO, for which he was one of the founding board members. ICAR's mission is to promote the creation, development and self-governing of microfinance systems adapted to the financing needs of farmers and rural communities in the developing countries.

Luc Démazure has a Masters in economic sciences and an agricultural engineering degree from ISA Beauvais.